Narragansett[™]

KITCHEN & BAR

Narragansett Kitchen & Bar at T.F. Green Airport pays tribute to Rhode Island's rich brewing and culinary heritage. The concept is rooted in the iconic legacy of Narragansett Beer—founded in 1890 in Cranston and once the largest brewery in New England. Known as the first alcohol brand to sponsor an American sports team through a 32-year partnership with the Boston Red Sox, and famously featured in Jaws, Narragansett embodies classic Americana. Revived in 2005 by Mark Hellendrung and a team of investors, the brand has seen a remarkable resurgence. The menu celebrates the community's deep Italian and Portuguese roots. Local partnerships are at the heart of the menu: fresh pastas from Venda Ravioli, various proteins from Frank's Veal Company, desserts from Kathy's Cupcakes, and regional favorites like meatballs in Rhode Island Red Sauce and beer cheese with chopped cherry peppers. Narragansett's own craft beer anchors dishes like red wine-marinated olives and chourico, blending pub classics with local authenticity. The result is a modern airport dining experience that reflects the flavors, heritage, and pride of Rhode Island.
